“We Did Our Part: the story of a WW II AAF Air Transport C-47 Pilot in the SW Pacific ” as told by Kay Nehring, his daughter

Hear the story of Lt Charles J. Nehring who went from selling shoes in N. Dakota to dropping paratroopers on Corregidor. He served with the 39th SQ of the 317th TCG from '42 to '45 and shot rare 16mm color film of his daily activities and flights. Kay narrates the film and reads from his letters home, as well as brings a collection of his WW II things for viewing. A unique and personal look at the war.
