“Building the Spirit of St Louis” by Oce A. Dotson

Charles Lindbergh's, “Spirit of St Louis” is one of the world's most famous airplanes. Hear the inside story of how it was built from Oce Dotson, a local Prescott resident and aviation history buff. His father-in-law was a foreman on the project in 1927 and Oce became fascinated by what he learned, including some widely accepted myths about it.
