Call for Papers

The Journal of Digital Forensics, Security and Law will publish its second issue in the Spring of 2006 and is calling for papers in, or related to, the following areas:

- 1) Digital Forensics Curriculum
- 2) Cyber Law Curriculum
- 3) Information Assurance Curriculum
- 4) Digital Forensics Teaching Methods
- 5) Cyber Law Teaching Methods
- 6) Information Assurance Teaching Methods
- 7) Digital Forensics Case Studies
- 8) Cyber Law Case Studies
- 9) Information Assurance Case Studies
- 10) Digital Forensics and Information Technology
- 11) Law and Information Technology
- 12) Information Assurance and Information Technology

To be considered for inclusion in the second issue, manuscripts should be submitted prior to midnight April 21st, 2006.

Guide for Submission of Manuscripts

All manuscripts should be word-processed (letter or correspondence-quality font). If the paper has been presented previously at a conference or other professional meeting, this fact, the date, and the sponsoring organization should be given in a footnote on the first page. Funding sources should be acknowledged in the "Acknowledgements" section. Articles published in or under consideration for other journals should not be submitted. Enhanced versions of book chapters can be considered. Authors need to seek permission from the book publishers for such publications. Papers awaiting presentation or already presented at conferences must be significantly revised (ideally, taking advantage of feedback received at the conference) in order to receive any consideration.

Manuscripts should be submitted through the JDFSL online system in Word or PDF format using the following link: <http://www.jdfsl.org/submission.asp>.

Manuscripts may also be submitted to the editor in Word, Word Perfect, RTF, or PDF format. The editor of the JDFSL, Dr. Glenn S. Dardick, may be reached via email at editor@jdfsl.org.

In special circumstances, papers will be accepted in paper format, but this may considerably delay the review of the paper. Authors are advised to contact the Editor before submitting hard copy.

The copyright of all material published in JDFSL is held by the Association of Digital Forensics, Security and Law (ADFSL). The author must complete and return the copyright agreement before publication. The copyright agreement may be found at <http://www.jdfsl.org/copyrighttransfer.pdf>.

Additional information regarding the format of submissions may be found on the JDFSL website at <http://www.jdfsl.org/authorinstructions.htm>.
