Multi-engine simulator arrives

By R.K. Semikory

February 10, the first of three multi-engine simulators was installed in the "GATT Room" in 2 buildings to kick off the newly founded simulator

The need for the program was established when the decision was made not to proceed with the original flight training plan. Without the flight training, students would have to be trained with a different approach from the relatively simple ENP 175 to the complex multiengine Piper Seneca. The new simulators will allow the pilots to complete their experience before entering the flight training program at SRA.

Richard Bryant, Assistant Director of Flight Simulation, explained these three models of simulators will be used to train students to determine which one will be used at the flight simulator. Flight Student will have the opportunity to decide which one will be used for the flight training.

date for Governor and Bob Junge - Candidate for Vice-President of the SGA. The students of the University of Illinois at Chicago are organiz- ing a new political party to take the opportunity to express their own views on our choice to pursue the best candidates that will bring a great deal of your home at the polls.

We built feel we are the only students that are mov- ing in the SGA election. Whether both with the issues and the opportu- nities of our generation, or as a group, have an opportunity to express your views at the polls. You are the people we want to represent.

The present SGA has been selected to repre- sent the administration's interests, and others say the same thing. But this is not the only way to view this issue. The students we have not had the opportunity to express your views on the issues that affect us.

We are running for the office of Student Government because we believe it is the right time, and we want to do something about the issues that affect us.

Jonathan Edwards captures E-RAU crowd

BY Mike White
AVION Staff Reporter

Even with the numerous other events taking place around Daytona, Jonathan Edwards was sure to capture the attention of the E-RAU crowd in the U.C. Friday night. The show lasted for about 45 minutes, and the audience was on their feet throughout. Edwards asked the audience to put their hands up and sing along with his songs, creating a lively atmosphere.

Other E-RAU groups are also expected to perform the set before the crowd.

With the power-system failure. Luckily, they were able to continue the show without any further interruptions, and the audience remained engaged throughout.

Springsteen’s debut double album, features 19 minutes of the best rock and roll ballads heard...

In his latest album, Springsteen once more shows why he’s the man with the back-up group "The E Street Band" which is comprised of Roy Brittin on keyboards; Clarence Clemons on sax; Garry Tallent on bass; Steve Van Zandt on guitar; and Max Weinberg on drums. Together, Bruce Springsteen and The E Street Band produce a sound which is simply incomparable - too many other groups to mention.

"The River," also known as "The Boss," tells its stories in this album, the same way that he has been telling them for years, in song. His tales of working for the minimum wage, and the hopes of those who are fighting to keep hold of the dream.

"The River" offers a glimpse of the everyday lives that we all share. His words are a testament to the beauty of the human spirit, and the power of love.

--George Brodsky

Getting to know Bruce Springsteen: What he’s like, what he says...
We firmly uphold:
- A total rearrangement of registration procedures
- A trimesterly poll of the entertainment you want
- Development of more athletic facilities/varisty sports involvement
- A designated central office area for clubs and organizations
- Weekly publication of all SGA financial transactions

We bitterly oppose:
- Paying $1,200.00 for twice-run movies when you are told to come see them for free!
- $5.00 surcharge for Phoenix yearbook
- Closing the pub during entertainment events
- J-Lot parking for faculty only

Skydive Parkers prepare for ski meet

On March 11th and 12th the ski team will compete in the University of Colorado Invitational. We would like to invite the student body to attend and show their support. It is a rare event for a good time, love, and partying with 14 other Florida colleges. Trophies will be awarded in the student areas after the competition. At the end of last year's season, Skydive Parkers placed 7th in the state. In a recent interview with the coach, Johnson said, "We have a strong team this year. Everything is doing extremely well in our preparation and I feel that we have a good chance to be among the top teams this spring.

Christian Fellowship Club to hold next meeting in President Hunt's mansion

By Kent Fowler

The Christian Fellowship Club will be serving luncheon and hot dogs at our meeting on March 15th. Our guest speaker that evening will be Dr. Maranne from the Bradley Baptist Church. Maranne will be posting a note in your book with more information about this meeting. Please sit out the bottom part of this note until as soon as possible so that we will know where you plan to sit. Members are encouraged to bring guests. It looks to be one of our best meetings ever. Last Friday night our guest speaker was the Rev. Samuel Eaves from the Church of God in Pocatello, Idaho. I would like to thank all of you who attended.

This Friday night we will be having "New York City" from Reidsen at the Stake Airfield. We will get you directions on this at next week's meeting.

Don't forget to start thinking about what you would like to be at the ski meet in March, or what you would like to be at the ski meet in March. If you would like to have the ski meet in March, or what you would like to have the ski meet in March. If you would like to have the ski meet in March, or what you would like to have the ski meet in March.

If you would like more information about the club, feel free to stop by and say a prayer in my office (H379).
Depleted Flight Team receives eight awards at NIFA competition

The weekend of February 20-21 was an eventful one for the Flight Team in which we competed in the National Intercollegiate Flying Association Regional Meet hosted by Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana. The team, composed entirely of students, planned and prepared for the competition on the national level against other schools from the many other regions across the nation.

The event, held at Honeywell Field, was designed to showcase team members' ability in completing flight-related tasks and to promote the sport of aerobatics. Four events were planned.

POWER-OFF ACCURACY LANDINGS — Joe Kinney placed second, and Bill Glessner placed fourth.

THUNDER ACCURACY LANDINGS — Paul Keyes placed first, and Jeff Geller placed fourth.

OVERALL SAFETY - R-E-A-U placed fifth.

In addition to these events, the team was also scheduled to perform in the "Free Flight" event, which was an opportunity for the team to showcase their skills and creativity. The weekend was filled with laughter, teamwork, and a strong sense of accomplishment. The team left Purdue University feeling confident and ready to continue their journey of success.

The last two years here at Reddy-Riddle the intramural program has grown almost as fast as the school. It has come from a program where everybody thought it to be a joke, to a program in which hundreds of students are willing to participate and enjoy. Also of the credit for the advancement of the intramural program goes to Dean Rockwell, but the real "drive" behind the program comes from underneath. The "underground" person, let's be honest, is the Director of Recreation.

Leslie has done a fantastic job developing the intramural program and shows a great interest in continuing to let it grow here at Reddy. She's concerned for the students and is willing to help them in any way she can. Even though she has brought up many controversial issues (such as the N.C.A.A.), she was really great for the students.

For those of you who are not involved in the sports program here, I feel sorry for you because we're now making out of fun. The sports programs are not only set up for the megatrack star or the home run hitter, but also for those who can't run around the block or the person who strikes out every time. These sports are not only fun but a great relief from school pressures. You get to meet some of new friends, and occasionally a girl or two. Now few of you who are planning that I'm filling up "all of" you're wrong, because if I didn't believe and enjoy the program how could I write this article after being a softball game Sunday? It was a good game, Leslie.

THE SGA DEBATES

Wednesday, March 4

See the various Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates speak on issues relating to E-RAU students

 Debates start at 2:00 pm.

Elections March 11, 1981
When Kevin Pasternack and Bob Junge filed their petition for SGA President and Vice-President they were doing so under a 'Promote from within,' concept. Between them they have almost 2 years of service to the SGA and its divisions. They are abreast of the issues that confront the students here at Embry-Riddle.

Much has been said about the turnover of SGA officials and both Kevin and Bob see their petition for election as a major effort to add continuity to the 1981 SGA administration.

On March 11th when we ask you to cast your vote for the 'Team with experience' remember that we are asking you to vote for the candidates who have both held staff positions on the Avion, committee positions for the University, and most recently voiced your opinions as representatives at large.
