Lost and Found...

When you think you've reached your journey's end,
There's another quest around the bend.
In this thing that we call life,
Our paths are crossed with pain and strife.
To prematurely believe that we are through,
Will only result in a trial anew.
Good books have been written to guide our way,
But we must open and read them every day.
If kept up high upon a shelf,
We are left to find our way our self.
In order for us all to see,
We must turn our hearts and minds to Thee.
When you feel that you've made the right choice,
Just listen for that still small voice.
For it is a gift from Him to you,
And if you listen it can help you through.
This gift to us is completely free,
If we but turn our lives to Thee.
