NASA Kennedy Space Center

KSC is the world's preeminent launch complex for government and commercial space access, enabling the world to explore and work in space

We are an active multiuser spaceport

Broad range of customers

- 58 partners
- 4 NASA programs
- 5 launch providers
 - Human, commercial, NASA, DOD
- 3 spacecraft manufacturers

- Seeing the shift from development to operations
- Multiple operational entities with a high launch rate drives the complexity of integration and coordination

Spaceport Management & Integration

Spaceport Integration and Services (SI) integrates operations across all spaceport partners to ensure safety and reduce operational impacts

- Managing and integrating operations of the spaceport
 - FAA licensed commercial launches
 - Allow use of Automated Flight Safety Systems
 - Manage integrated master schedule
 - Coordination of NASA provided support
 - Management of service delivery

Operational Philosophy

- Dedicated to the success of all spaceport customers
- Maximum autonomy
 - Customers responsible for their own operations and safety within dedicated facilities
- Information sharing is critical for everyone's success
 - Advise of hazards
- Work to solve conflicts before they happen
 - When conflict is unavoidable, work with customers to identify a solution

We have 50 years of experience managing complex operations and have the capability to integrate across multiple programs and partners to ensure mission success
