Multiple Perspectives

Sally

Paper presentation

Explanation of Student Project

A total of 334 students in speech classes created audio tours describing information about specific specimens in the museum. The museum director presented a specimen list, gave instructions, and emphasized the importance of accuracy and detail in their presentations.